Center to be renamed

The Fairland Library and Community Recreation Center will be renamed in memory of Montgomery County Council member Marilyn J. Praisner.

County Executive Ike Leggett announced the tribute during a memorial mass for Praisner at St. John the Baptist Church in Silver Spring.

Praisner, who had served five terms on the council, died Feb. 1 from complications following heart surgery. She was 66.

The buildings on Old Columbia Pike in Burtonsville will be renamed the Marilyn J. Praisner Center.
